THE NEW UMBRELLAS.
The utilitarian umbrella is taking unto itself all sorts of little beautifying touches nowadays. The sober black silk cover is giving way to coverings which should, to be correct, match the costume as carefully as do the hat and gloves. Dark rich silks, some of them changeable with black or some other dark shade, are shown growing more elaborate, too. The growing more elaborate, too. The growing more elaborate, too. The growing more elaborate, too.

CODEFISH AND POTATO STEW.
Soak, boil and pick the fish. If salt, as for fish balls. Add an equal quantity of mashed potatoes, a large tablespoon of butter, and mix enough to make it very soft. Put into a buttered skillet, and add a very little boiling water to keep it from burning. Turn and toss constantly until it is smoking hot but not dry. Add 1-4 teaspoonful pepper and 1 tablespoon minced parsley and serve.

A NEW SANDWICH FILLING.
An appetizing filling for sandwiches has recently been introduced. This is thin slices of smoked salmon, curly at the edges and having a particularly pungent flavor. Placed between thin slices of bread, with a fragment of lettuce leaf, it makes a specially tasty sandwich.

VARYING THE HASH.
Try putting a few bits of coarsely chopped autumn apple into the prosaic breakfast hash. Hash is generally a thing of meat and potatoes only, whereas a little special flavor may be given to it by scattering into it, now the apple, now a few nut meats, again some bits of pimento or the little bamboo sprouts which come from the Chinese quarter. Hash is an economic necessity now and then, but it may be made into a palatable surprise by the addition of a few unexpected tidbits.

BONNY-CLABBER.
"Away down south in Dixie" there is one dish which seems to be universally liked. This is "bonny-clabber," generally shortened to "clabber." Another name for it is "clotted milk." To make it set a china or glass dish of skimmed milk away in a warm place, covered. When it turns—that is, becomes a smooth, firm, but not tough, cake, similar to blanc mange—serve it in the same dish. Cut it out carefully in large spoonfuls, put in saucers and cover with cream, powdered sugar and nutmeg to taste. It is better if set on ice for an hour before being brought to the table. Do not let it stand until the whey separates from the curd.

Fried Fish
Fry perch, trout, butter fish, smelt, herring and other small pan fish whole. Cut large fish in inch thick slices, and two or three loaves square flounders and bass, strip off the flesh each side of bone in long fillets, divide in halves and roll up toward tip. Remove skin and bones as much as possible from sliced fish; wipe dry, roll in bread crumbs or fine meal, then in beaten egg and then in crumbs and fry in deep Cottolene, hot enough to brown a bit of bread while you count sixty. Drain well before serving. Or simply cover with seasoned meat and brown on each side in hot Cottolene in frying pan.

Evangelist Fagan preached a great sermon on "Fundamentals," presenting in his earnest dramatic style the three primary doctrines of the Christian faith: God, an inspired book and a Divine Christ. Upon this foundation all of the work of these meetings will be done. It was a masterful effort and well received.

Mrs. Fagan sang to the delight of the audience one of her most effective solos, "Then I Shall Understand." Tonight she will sing "Shadows." The sermon for this evening's service will be "A Man Up a Tree." Hear the Fagans. Come early.

BRIDE HIS REWARD FOR WILSON VOTE

Miss Whytock, Losing Ballot in California, Makes Bridegroom Kingsley Change Choice.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Miss Janet E. Whytock of Glendale, Cal., was married to Julius S. Kingsley, principal of the Northport, L. I., high school, yesterday in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. The bride is an ardent supporter of President Wilson and has a vote in her home state. The bridegroom was a strong Hughes man.

Miss Whytock did not wish to come east before election, as she wished to vote; but finally consented to come if her fiancé would make up for her lost vote by himself voting for Wilson. A telegram was received by her ten days ago saying:

"I will vote for Wilson. It's love and duty, but love wins out. You lose your vote, and to make things even I will cast mine for the President. Come east at once."

U. S. EXAMINES ZEPPELIN METAL

Found to Resemble Aluminum, But Much Heavier and Stronger.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Naval experts today examined two pieces of metal taken from a German Zeppelin that was destroyed while raiding England. The metal resembles aluminum, but is considerably heavier and much stronger.

Reports from abroad some time ago stated that neither the British nor the French scientists had been able to determine the exact constituent parts of this German metal.

TRIAL OF CITY OFFICIALS ENDS

Mayor and Four Others Charged With Failure to Suppress Riot.

SALEM, Mass., Nov. 2.—The jury in the case of Mayor Albert L. Bartlett and four Haverhill city officials, charged with failure to suppress a riot growing out of a discussion of religious subjects on April 3, returned a verdict today. Mayor Bartlett was acquitted on one count and the jury disagreed on a second both of which charged failure to suppress the disturbances.

Charles H. Hoy, commissioner of public safety, was acquitted on both counts.

The jury disagreed in the case of Albert E. Steiner, C. C. Cook and Russell L. Wood, three other members of the city government.

Order for Officers to Salute.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—Under a new army order officers have begun to salute officers of higher rank in the streets of London. The more frequent parts of the city are constantly congested with men in khaki and saluting already had become an exhausting business when indulged in between officers and men. But now the war usage has gone forth as follows:

"When not on duty or parade, but in uniform, officers under the rank of field officers will salute all officers of field rank and upward. Field officers and general officers will salute their superiors in rank."

This means that all officers in uniform below the rank of major must salute senior majors and officers of higher rank. It always has been customary for officers to salute the insignia of the Victoria Cross.

GERMAN BOATS ESCAPE TO SEA.

Had Been in Dutch Harbor Since War Began.

ROTTERDAM, Netherlands, Nov. 2.—Thirty three German and Austrian steamships that had been laid up in Dutch harbors since the beginning of the war have put to sea in the last seven months. 15 of them leaving in the month of September alone. Clinging to the coast, all would seem to have got safely to home ports, and a number of these ships probably have been placed in the German services to Scandinavian ports. Only 12 German and three Austrian steamships remain in Dutch harbors, apart from four interned German vessels.

SECRET SERVICE AWAKENS

GROVER IN MONEY TRANCE

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 2.—When James Wright, United States secret service operative from Atlanta, dropped in on A. S. Richards, a grocery man, today and confiscated the $250,000 Mexican money the latter had, the grocer's air castle in Mexico vanished.

Wright pronounced the Mexican bills counterfeit and seized the bundle expressing it to Washington.

Richards got the money a few weeks ago when he bought a trunk at an "old home" sale for $6.50 and opened it to find close to a half million dollars in Mexican money. He sold several thousand dollars' worth at $1 a handful.

COPY OF FIRST CHOR BOOK.

It is Presented to Chicago Library By Exiled Priest.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—A copy of what is said to be the first choir book ever printed on this continent has been offered to the Newberry Library of Chicago by the Most Rev. Francisco Planarte, archbishop of Monterey, Mexico, an exile here, it was announced today. The book, published in 1576, is one of the four in existence in the world. The other copies are in London, Berlin and Mexico.

The book is remarkably well printed. The cover is of wood incised in tough plucking. The publisher and date on the first page are Pedro A. Ocharte, 1576. "The gradale dominical" the name of the book, was found among the ruins of an Indian church in 1912 after its destruction by the Mexicans in their attack on the Zapotistas.

Sudden Attack Brought Threat of Operation

SENT FOR A BOTTLE OF FRUITOLA AND WAS QUICKLY RELIEVED OF GALL STONE TROUBLE.

After doctoring with several different doctors and getting no relief, Mr. T. L. Sherman, 17 Crocker Ave., ohmson City, N. Y., says he was taken very suddenly one night with severe pains and on calling the doctor was told he had gall stones and that an operation was necessary. Mr. Sherman writes, "I had heard of Fruitola so sent for a bottle and took it. I was relieved of a large quantity of gall stones, and continued the treatment. Now I am quite well, and have regained over forty pounds lost weight."

Fruitola and Traxo are compounded from the original Edsall formulas at the Pinus Laboratories in Monticello, Ill., and can be purchased in Pendleton of Tallman & Co., 623 Main street; a doctor's prescription is not necessary. Fruitola is a pure fruit oil that acts as an intestinal lubricant and disintegrates the hardened particles that cause so much suffering, discharging the accumulated waste to the sufferers' intense relief. One dose is usually sufficient to induce its efficacy. Traxo is a tonic-alternative that is most effective to rebuild and restore the weakened, rundown system.

A booklet of special interest to those who suffer from stomach trouble can be obtained by writing to the Pinus Laboratories, Monticello, Illinois.
